Dear friend Margaret,

My mum is happy to hear from you. Every day, she gets up at 5 a.m., washes herself and prays. Then, she prepares breakfast for us. After that, she washes the dishes, cleans the house and cooks lunch. In the afternoon, she has a rest, prays, makes tea and watch TV. In the evening, she washes clothes, prepares dinner, prays and helps me with my homework. At night, she mops the floor, makes the beds, watches TV or surfs on the net before going to bed.

My regards to your parents.

Every morning, my mother gets up at half past six to pray Fajr. She prepares breakfast, and then she washes the dishes and cleans the house. After that, she cooks lunch. In the evening, she helps me with my homework and after that she cooks the dinner. After dinner, we watch T.V. At night, she reads some stories to me and goes to bed at 10:00pm. At weekends, she goes shopping. I love my mother. She is a wonderful woman!
