

HELLO

kids

Hello my friends, today I'm going to tell you about my mother's daily routine. In the morning, she gets up at 06.00, she prays and prepares breakfast for us. When we go to school she washes the dishes, cleans the house and cooks lunch. In the afternoon, she prays again and has a rest (a nap). At 15.00 she makes tea and watches TV. In the evening, she prepares dinner, washes our clothes, prays and washes the dishes after that she helps me with my homework.

At night, she mops the floor, surfs the net then hangs the clothes and makes the beds when she finishes she finally goes to bed.

I love my mom, she is my superhero

Hello, dear friends. How are you? My name is Younes. I am twelve years old. I am from Batna. I am a pupil at Ben M'hidi Middle School.

Everyday morning, I get up at 6:45. I wash myself and I pray. Then, I get dressed, have breakfast and go to school at 7:30. My first class starts at eight o'clock. I also have lessons in the afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

In the afternoon, I go home. I drink coffee and I play with my pet. I have a cat called Lilly. At 8:45 p.m, I have dinner. Then, I read a story before I go to bed at 9:15p.m. What about you?

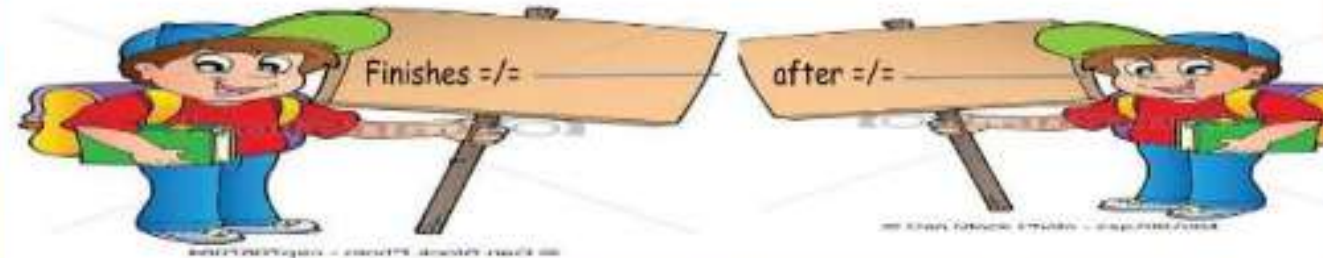

A. I read and write "true" or "false". I correct the false answer

1. Younes is a pupil at Ben M'hidi primary school. →
2. He drinks coffee when he goes home. →
3. He reads a story after he goes to bed. →

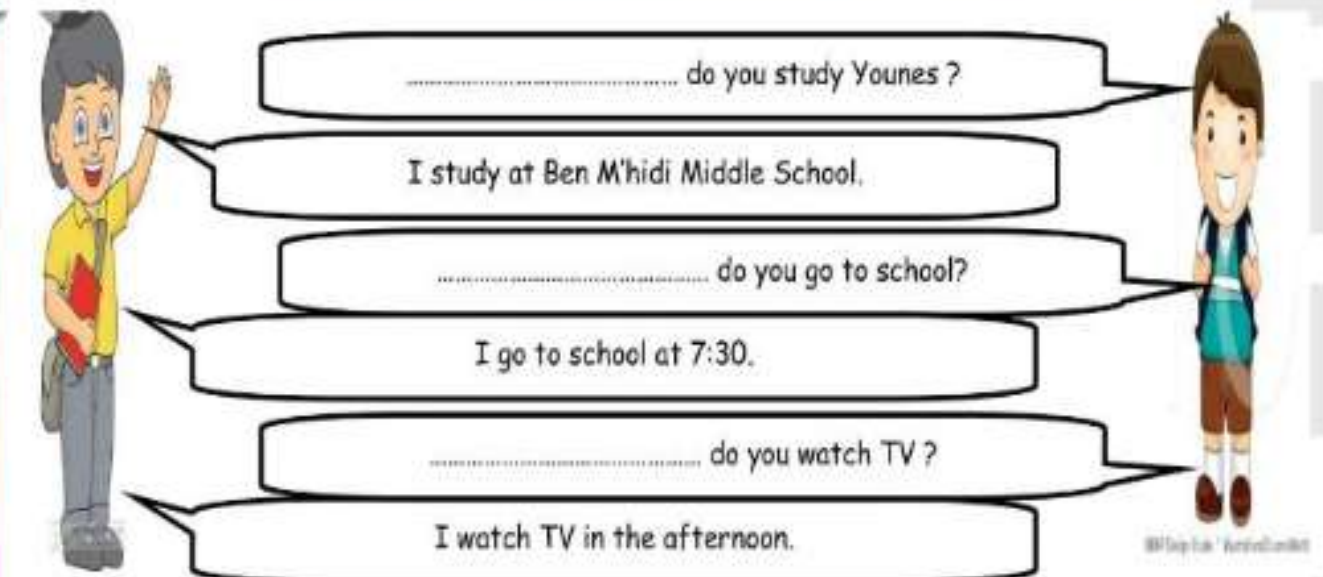

I read and answer the questions:

1. Is Younes a pupil? →
2. Does he get up at 6:30? →

I find the opposites in the text:

I complete the dialogue with: When, Where, At what time

I put the verbs in the present simple:

Younes (to be) a good pupil. He (to love) his school very much. In weekends, he (to help) his father in the garden. They (to plant) trees.

I put the verbs in the right ball: finishes- puts- gets- has

I write a letter to tell Younes about my mother and her daily routines.

A large, empty, lined area for writing a letter.

Dear Radia

I am writing to tell you about my new school .It is a big and beautiful place. We have classes, sport ground, 2 labs,a computer room, and a canteen where we have lunch.

All pupils here are nice and polite. We have the same rights and duties. Our teacher told us that to have a good and free education, play in the school yard, and have equal opportunities in class are our rights. She also said that we have duties such as to stand for the national anthem, to keep our school clean, and to follow the school rules.

What about you?

Yours,
