In the picture, there is a young girl in a park. She (stand) is standing on a skateboard and she (smile) is smiling and (look) looking at a picnic basket full of food. Next to the basket there is a cat. It (sleep) is sleeping on a bench, and behind the bench there is a bird. It (walk) is walking on the ground. There is another bird, as well, but it (fly) is flying. There is also a butterfly, and it (fly) is flying, too. In the background there is a man. He (walk) is walking his dog. He should be careful because there is a man (drive) driving a car very fast on the road behind him.

Task 13. I listen to Sami and Rachid chatting and I complete the first part of their conversation.

Rachid: Hi, Sami. How was your weekend?

Sami: Hi, Rachid. Don't ask me about my weekend. It was awful!

Rachid: Why?

Sami: Well, I like swimming. I go to the swimming pool every Saturday afternoon but I spent this weekend at home, doing nothing interesting because there's a problem with hot water at the pool. And how was your weekend?

Rachid: It was fine. A football match with my mates on Friday morning as usual and Judo training in the afternoon.

Tasks 15 and 16: I listen to the second part of the conversation between Sami and Rachid.

Sami: So, you do judo! Can you use a judo throw on me?

Rachid: Of course I can! I can knock you down in two seconds! I'm a green belt in judo, you know!

Sami: Well, I don't like this kind of sport: It doesn't mean I'm not sporty; I like swimming and I'm also a fan of cycling and tennis. I love bikes. Cycling is my favourite weekend activity.

Rachid: What about the weekdays? What do you do?

Sami: Nothing much except the daily routine: school every day, mornings and afternoons. After school, it's homework as usual. After dinner, it's time to go to bed. On Tuesday afternoon, I play tennis. I have training sessions every Tuesday. Well, that's it!

Rachid: Oh! The school bell's ringing. It's time for class. Let's go.
