I had a wonderful childhood. I used to go to ^{the} Name primary school where we studied Arabic, French and Maths. Mr Brahim used to teach us Maths and Arabic and Mrs Lulu used to teach us French. My favourite subject was Maths and my best classmate was Ahmed. We used to have a lot of fun. In my free time I used to practice karate and play chess and monopoly with my brother. Sweet Memories

When I was 5, I remember how my mother used to be angry with me every morning before school. She was always in a hurry to brush my long hair and I used to make a scandal because it hurts!

I used to go to school with my older brother. We used to wear a uniform to school, a blazer with white blouse and black trousers for boys and a skirt for girls but outside school we used to wear casual clothes. I used to like math and English but I hated doing homework.

I remember what games we used to play at weekends when our father was at home. We used to play fun games like hopscotch and hide and seek. Sunday morning was my favorite time.
