- Liz, your British web pal, wants to know about your last summer trip around Algeria. Write to her an email in which you describe your itinerary and talk about the famous landmarks you visited during this journey.

You may use these cues to help yourself:

- Verbs: travel, visit, see, go, fly, take... etc.
- Adjectives: superb, wonderful, amazing, stunning etc.
- Means of transport: taxi, bus, train, plane... etc.
- Landmarks: Martyr's Memorial, Djemila, Santa Cruz... etc.
- Traditional food: couscous, shakhchoukha, mhajeb, thirda... etc.

I am happy to tell you about the itinerary of my wonderful trip around Europe.

First, I started my trip from the capital London and flew to Lisbon, Portugal. I arrived at 10:00 a.m. I walked around the city where I saw many beautiful sights. Then, I went to Batalha town and visited "Batalha Monastery" which is one of the most impressive masterpieces. I had my lunch there and ate caldo verde soup which is very tasty. After that, I travelled on TGV (high speed train) to Barcelona, Spain, to see the famous building "La Sagrada Familia" which was designed by the talented architect Antonio Gaudi. I took many photos there with some Spanish friends and enjoyed our dinner by having the traditional rice dish "Paella". I spent the night in that town because I wanted to stay with my friends as much as I can. Afterwards, I moved to France and visited the splendid monument made of iron the "Eiffel Tower". I also walked along the Seine banks and ate very delicious crepes. Later, I sailed to Italy on a cruise ship. I visited the floating city "Venice" and walked over lots of bridges like "Rialto Bridge". I ate "spaghetti" at Fiola Restaurant with a fascinating view on canals.

Finally, I came back to London after having nice days and unforgettable moments. What about your summer itinerary?
