in destroying economy.
Internal conflicts were among The key factors in the collapse of civ and they happened when people started to fight and plot against the king in order to Rule the throne

3. External conflicts: are also considered as one of the primary factors, however, the previous settlements sought to expand their lands and to steal food and resources, so they started fighting each others and that laid to their decline.

4. Epidemics: plays a big Role in weakening the Ancient Civ Since they can cause thousands of deaths in a very short periods of time such as Covid-19.

- a- Internal conflicts, fighting for the throne and plotting against the king, were among the key factors in the decline of many empires.
- b- External wars, the previous civilizations sought to expand their colony, so they began invading other countries and stealing their lands and goods, so their economy was destroyed and that led to their decline.
- c- Climate change is one of the primary causes of the downfall of many empires because it has increased the rate of natural disasters such as drought and floods, and since the previous civilizations depended mainly on agriculture such problems led to losing all the crops.
