Syllable and Stress Syllable

a-0-8-1-0

We divide the syllables by counting the vowel sounds and not the vowel letters.

Example: Phi lo so phy - de ce sion - ge o lo gy - Li on - make

"e" at the end of the word is always silent expect if the word ends with "le"

Example: gen tle - ac cep ta ble

Stress syllable: the stress differs from word to another depending on its part of speech or ending

1- When the word ends with: ic- ics- tion -sion - the stress is on the penultimate syllable ( the second one from the end)

Economic - communication-television-epidemics
